H04: Assignments: Portfolio

Things we cover in this session

While becoming acquainted with portfolio work, you will experience an innovative form of assessment in this session. Portfolio work is not only about writing a learning diary but inspires you to reflect and improve your learning processes. Besides talking about the different kinds of portfolio in academic teaching, a special focus of this session is creating your own portfolio as well as meaningful tasks to structure portfolio work.

Things you need for this session

- W04-1: Introduction video
- W04-2: Create your own portfolio
- W04-3: Developing portfolio tasks

Things to take home from this session

At the end of this session you should be able to

- describe the benefits of portfolio work
- create your own e-portfolio on the platform “Mahara”
- reflect situations and learning experiences in a structured way
- develop tasks that structure and enhance portfolio work
