W02-1: A SL project

Based on this worksheet, you conceptualize a Service Learning project as an example. Imagine, you teach university student in your study field. Create a plan of procedures for a project you run with the students. After completing this worksheet, you should have ideas about what to consider as a lecturer in the field of Service Learning.

Things you need for this worksheet

- M02-1: How to bring “Service Learning” in practice?
- M02-2: Service Learning in Educational Domains
- M02-3: Service-Learning Standards for Quality Practice (NYCL 2008)

Learning log assignments

Create a semester as a lecturer, teaching university students in the sense of Service Learning. Design a schedule of the course on the left hand side of the flip-chart poster. On the right hand side of the poster add the didactic background (why arranging what, methodical approaches, goals, challenges).

Benchmarks:

- time range: three months
- students: 30 bachelor students
- study field: (your study field)
- place: (your home country)

Use M02-1 as a help to develop a structure and as a hint for aspects to consider.

In the closing auditorium, present your poster to the group (5 min).
